

Youth Newsletter

February 2016

Where has the time gone? We are already mostly through February. Many things have been happening as we try and start our year out right. Time has flown so fast I almost forgot to write a newsletter for this month.

Updates:

The winter retreat was a big success. I believe that everyone on that trip went home having learned a lot about themselves and God. I personally felt like I left with a changed heart. The lessons challenged everybody to really look at their relationship with Jesus. We also had a great opportunity to get closer to each other and to be encouraged in our walk with Christ.

and are moving a few things around. A ping pong table was donated to us. This is much appreciated since now there can be youth playing ping pong and pool at the same time. There is also a need for some shelves. Please contact Pat Resheske if you are willing to donate a bookshelf (in good shape) to the youth room.

New Believers

The youth group has been taking a look at the New Believer New Testament. There is a section in the front that asks some very important questions about our faith. Each week we go through a different section and learn more. We have also been talking in small groups and encouraging good conversations about Jesus.

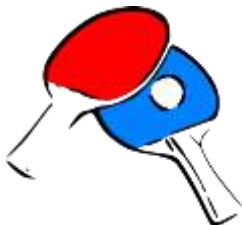

Rome Youth Movie Day

There will be a movie night for the youth in Rome on February 27th, 3:30 pm-8:30pm. They will enjoy games, snacks, dinner and a movie at the Meyers' house.

New Look

There is an effort being made to organize and change things around in the youth room. We are trying to make our space more functional. We have gotten rid of a few couches
